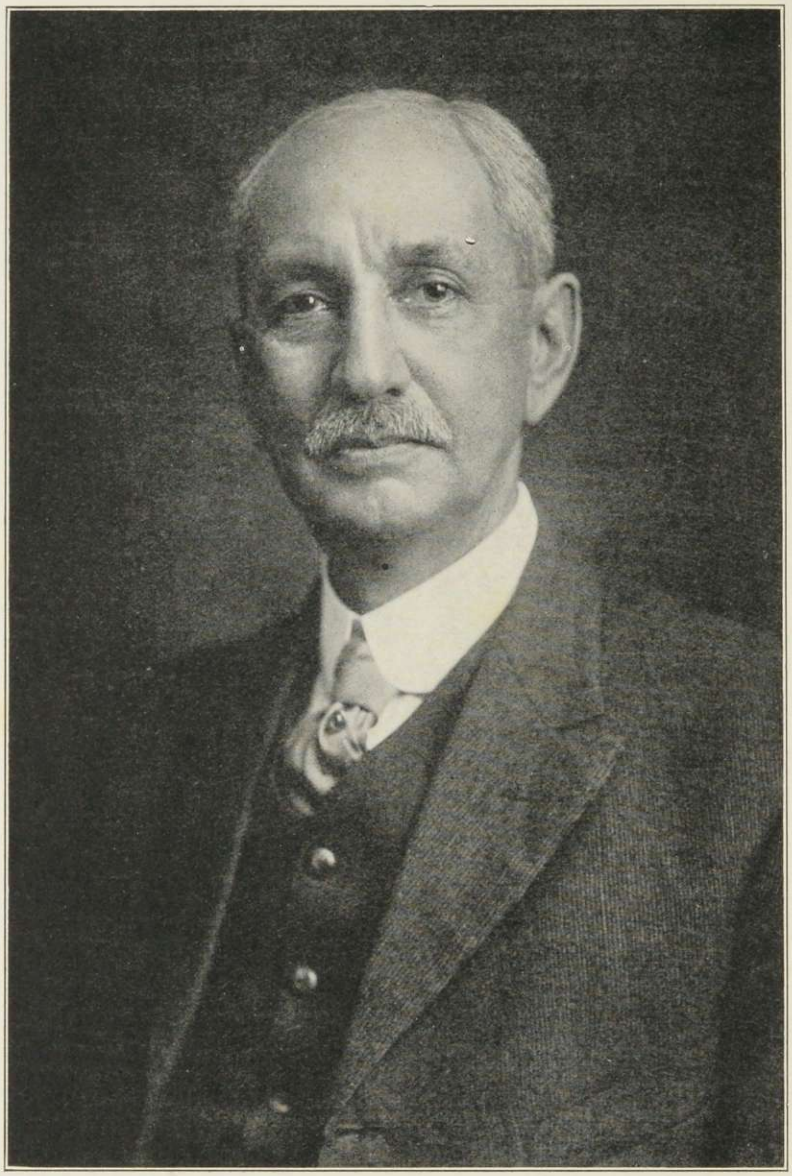
MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE



To

William Wesley McGilton

In recognition of distinguished services
for Twenty-seven years as Professor of Chemistry in Middlebury College, the Class of 1922 respectfully dedicates this volume.

Foreword

The past year has brought forth many changes at Middlebury, and the greatest among them is the loss of Dr. Thomas as President. The potency of his leadership and the seriousness of our loss is keenly felt by the entire undergraduate body. We shall remain loyal to him and to our Alma Mater by giving our wholehearted support to his policies and those of his successor.

In presenting this volume we have endeavored to review the lighter half of college life in such a way that as the years go on we will come more and more to appreciate the full significance of the name "Kaleidoscope." Time alone can judge of our success or failure.

The Class of 1921 was the first to enter Old Midd after America's entrance in the War. Because of enlistments, the student body was small and its own roll-call showed the first decrease in twenty years. Everything was changed; the year shortened and Junior Week omitted. Even our victories over the Sophomores lacked their traditional spice.

The next year opened with the S. A. T. C. College was changed into a camp of war with the bugle call and sharp commands and marching men. Then one clear November morn the bells pealed forth the glorious news of the Armistice. In January conditions began to return to normal and for the rest of the year we tried to bring back the real college life.

When we returned in the fall we took up our duties as upperclass men with enthusiasm. All were soon busy working on Kaleidoscope and Junior Week plans. And what a Junior Week it was! We are sure there never has been a better one. The Prom and other events answered every expectation. Then came the Kaleidoscope.

Soon June had come and gone and then our Senior year began. The days have rushed by, each bringing us nearer to the time when our college course will be finished and life opened before us. You, who are left behind, guard well each cherished tradition of the College on the Hill, hold high her banner and never forget that you are Middlebury Men.

Class Officers

CHARLES C. BALDWIN .. .. .. President
EDITH P. SIBLEY .. .. .. Vice-President
RUTH L. MCARTHUR .. .. .. Secretary
ALBERT F. GOLLNICK .. .. .. Treasurer

The Class of 1922 entered Middlebury when the affairs of our country were in a rather unsettled state. We were unable to get any of the real college life during the first part of the year, but after the armistice was signed and conditions began to moderate somewhat, we returned to college to finish out the year and to get a taste of what college life ought to be. We held our own along academic lines, and in addition to winning the Hat Scrap and Rope Pull, we beat the Sophs and Juniors in the inter-class track meet.

During our Sophomore year we introduced the freshmen to the customs of the college and stood up well under our responsibilities. Instead of letting them win all the class contests we retained our reputation as champion rope-pullers and gave them a much needed drenching. We also won the inter-class track championship.

The women proved themselves worthy members of this great class by winning the class championship in basket ball along with other notable honors. We have been strongly represented on all the Varsity teams and expect to continue the good work.

MILTON LOYAL BARNES
"Milt"
Pittsford Mills, Vt.

Lothrope High School; Alchemists (2); Merrill Prize Speaking (2).

Milton is one of the bouquets which Pittsford handed to our class and we cherish him lovingly. When we don't see him headed toward the home of all beauty across the street we know he is kidding along the Chem. Dept. Rumor has it that he has much in common with the faculty and we suspect him of being a seeker after knowledge. Aside from these minor blemishes Milton's record has been characterized by considerable pep. As a friend, however, he is just what his middle name signifies and we like him even when he pulls that laugh of his. You have to hear that to appreciate it.

"O wad some power the Giftie gie us,
To see ourselves as ithers see us."

CHARLES CURTIS BALDWIN, XΨ
"Chick"
Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Manager Class Track (1); Varsity Track M. (1); Varsity Track Squad (2); Chairman Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Class President (3); Delta Tau.

Behold the King of the illustrious Class of 1922! Our dear president! There is but one thing to mar the complete joy and happiness of this promising Rutland youth. If you don't believe us just sit next to Chick some time when he is trying to take notes in one of Prof. Abbott's Poly. Sci. classes. It is then that one realizes that Charles really missed his vocation. He should have joined the navy with Muzzy or become a mule driver. His vocabulary when slightly irritated—as in Business Law—is little short of marvelous. But after all is said and done Chick is a good fellow and a hard worker at track and Hops (Sophomore we mean) and class meetings and we like him just the same.

JULIAN MACLAURIE BISHOP, ΔKE
"Bish," "Parson"
Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Poughkeepsie High School; Troy Conference Academy; Campus (2, 3); Press Club (3); President Apollo Club (3); Glee Club Accompanist (3).

Bish started college as a model young man. Now he smokes, dances, and plays cards, which would indicate the truth in the idea that one should never lose hope. Bish is kingpin piano player of the college and is at home banging out the latest jazz or accompanying our artists on the Glee Club. He can cover the hundred yards on the piano in ten flat without even being winded. If you don't believe it, have him play his "Double Syncopation" for you some time.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast."

KARL AUGUST BRAUTIGAM, ΔKE
"Brauty"
South Orange, N. J.

Columbia High School; Campus Staff (1, 2, 3); Associate Editor (2, 3); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3); Charter Member Press Club (2, 3); Junion Prom Committee; Tennis (2, 3); Outing Club (2, 3); Glee Club (3).

He laughs (and writes) and the waiting hundreds laugh with him. Many see him, few know him, yet all respect the untold and equally diversified talents of this able skipper, and founder, of The Periscope and erstwhile Jack-of-All-Trades. His is a versatility coupled with a well-balanced sense of proportions which permits of an active participation in campus affairs, without interfering with a systematic discharge of academic responsibilities. A friend of friends is he and one whose constant optimism is contagious. The college knows and respects him as a man of parts and one who amply bears witness to the truth of Goethe's philosophy, "Never Hurry: Never Rest."

ROBERT HARWOOD BROKENSHIRE, ΔΥ
"Bob," "Brokie"
Gulfport, Miss.

Pawtucket High School; Transfer from South Carolina Military College, 1919; Outing Club (2, 3); Glee Club (2, 3); Class Football (2); Junior Week Program Committee (3).

They say Brokie is very hard to get acquainted with because when accosted he always fears that someone wants to borrow two bits, but we think that this is unfair. To be sure, he is one of our greatest financial wizards and it is rumored that he has invented a collapsible bottle which will assure his fortune, but we have found that Brokie will always meet us half-way. Personally we have always admired him and wondered how one of such "charm" could so successfully withstand the wiles of the fair sex. Perhaps it is by repeated reference to his chosen motto "Ad hades cum co-ediae."

"Women and me can never agree."

HARRY EARLE BROWN, ΔΚΕ
"Brownie," "Buster"
Rutland, Vermont

West Rutland High School; Class President (1); Chairman Sophomore Rules Committee; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Baseball Squad (1, 2, 3); Delta Tau; Sages.

When Brownie speaks he is talking of "Jocko and I" and when Jocko talks he is speaking of "Bus" and "I." When you see Brown you see Mead and when you see Mead you see Brown. They are the inseparable and only West Rutland—or is it Rutland—twins but they can't help that so we like them just the same. Especially we liked to see them play side by side on the football field. When Buster came to Middlebury he met his Jonah and now Jocko has a rival. Lately we have seen Mead more and more without Brown but even so we never see Brown alone. O, no! Brownie's energies are not confined to football alone.

GERALD HEMENWAY CABOT, ΑΣΦ
"Bunny"
Windsor, Vermont

Windsor High School; Varsity Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Chairman Hike Committee, Outing Club (2); Chairman Program Committee Junior Week (3); Sages.

He who has not known Bunny has missed the most comprehensive course in his college career. Despite his rotundity Gerald is a "vahry" versatile young man, now tripping the gay fantastic as a suitor to Terpsichore, now displaying sterner virtues on the gridiron. And we attribute the major part of his success to his adherence to the belief that the voice with the smile wins—and Bunny's smile is a masterpiece, contagious and ineradicable. If you value your life, don't ask him about his coast down Chapel Mountain.

FRANCIS CARLISLE COATES, ΚΔΡ
"Coatsie"
Montpelier, Vermont

Montpelier High School; Class Football (1, 2); Delta Tau.

When friend Butler wrote "Hudibras" he said
"Friend Ralph
Thou hast outrun the constable at last."

But he got the two Coates mixed up. He should have said Carlisle, because it was our own Carlisle that got mixed up in the case of Shaw vs. an Onion. But that is a painful subject. Carlisle is not the wild Indian his name would indicate and now he is a nice "l'il's fella" and leads a more staid and sensible existence with only the professors to worry him.

WILLIAM RAYMOND COLE, ΑΣΦ
"Bill"
Beverly, Mass.

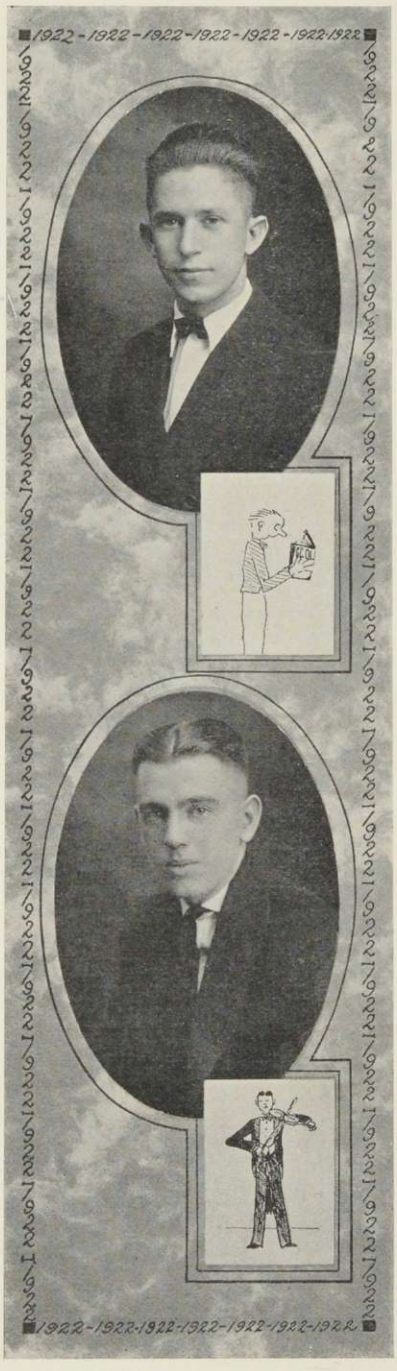
Orleans High School, Orleans, Vt.; Parker Prize Speaker (1); Varsity Track (2); Class Track (1, 2); Outing Club Team (2); Assistant Manager Basketball (3); Choir (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Mandolin Club (2, 3); Double Quartet (1); Band (2, 3), Manager (3); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3); Alchemists. Treasurer Eastern Intercollegiate Ski Association (3).

Bill's two hobbies seem to be chemistry and snowshoeing. We don't know how good he is at the former but we know he spends a good part of his time concocting terrible odors in the lab. As regards the second weakness, we have only to say that Bill is our "most expert" snowshoer and has been our most consistent point winner at Dartmouth and McGill winter carnivals. He hasn't very much weight to carry around and his wind seems endless, so why shouldn't he be a star in a long race?

GEORGE ARTHUR COWLES
Derby Line, Vermont

Derby Academy; Campus Board (2, 3); Mikado Chorus (1); Men's Chorus (2); Glee Club (3); Junior Week Committee (3).

This, gentle peruser, is our Hebe, cup-bearer to the goddesses of Pearsons. In spite of this, George treads the straight and narrow path and furnishes the always-needed reminder that "he laughs best who remains silent and tends primarily to his own occupations." We are glad to say, however, that Cowles has lots of pep as is shown by his faithful work on the business staff of the Campus. But to get George at his best, drop around some evening and hear him when he's at home in Hepburn.



CHARLES WINTHROP CREW, ΚΔΡ
"Charlie"
Dalton, Mass.

Dalton High School; Varsity Baseball (1); Class Football (2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Sages.

Charlie exemplifies the statement that you can never tell a man by his exterior appearances. Glance over at him and you would say immediately that he was destined to become a preacher or a college professor. Drop in at Starr Hall any time after eight and you will place him in an entirely different social strata. Charlie is a German student, a baseball catcher of considerable ability, a class football and baseball star, and a good man led wrong by Horner.

WILLIAM HENRY FITZPATRICK, ΔΚΕ
"Fitz," "Canuck"
Ottawa, Canada

Ottawa Collegiate Institute; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Mandolin Club (2, 3); Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Secretary Outing Club (2); Vice-President (3); Assistant Manager Football (3); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3); Sages.

Behold another one of the peerless Ottawa kids. Fitzie specializes on the violin. By reason of this ability he was able to connect with Brackett's famous Jazz as soon as he entered college, and now having successfully weathered two seasons with that redoubtable organization, he has risen to dizzy heights and is now manager of his own Harmony Five which promises to give Art Hickman and Ted Lewis stiff competition. The secret of his success is his good humor. We never saw Fitz actually peeved for five consecutive minutes.

ALBERT FRANK GOLLNICK, ΑΣΦ

"Al"

Milwaukee, Wis.

South Division High School; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3), Captain-elect (4); Varsity Track (1, 2); Class Track (1, 2); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Banjo and Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3); Double Quartet (2); College Choir (1, 2, 3); Varsity Tennis Team (1, 2), Manager (3); College Tennis Champ (1); Student Council (3); Class Treasurer (3); College Orchestra (3); Sages.

We don't know what we could do that Woodruffle this man's temper more than to accuse him of undue attention to the Hill. And indeed such accusation would be an injustice—for she does not live there. All in all, Al is one of our most versatile youths. He will make a strong bid for Phi Beta Kappa; he plays tennis and works on the track; and we thought he was a good enough full-back to make him captain of the football team next year. What more could a man ask?

ROGER TRUMAN HALL, ΔΥ

"Rog"

Mount Vernon, Maine

Hallowell, Academy, Hallowell, Me.; Parker Prize Speaker (1); Class Football (1, 2); Outing Club (1, 2, 3); Art Editor KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Green Mountain Club (2); Treasurer Undergraduate Association (3); Chairman Junior Play Committee (3); Sages.

We always have wondered how he does it. One day it's there,—the next it's missing. Then presto! he appears with it on again. We refer of course to the budding luxuriance on his upper lip. He is wonderfully fickle when it comes to tonsorial arts but whether it is because he considers it an effective disguise or merely because he favors a change of scenery, we cannot say. Maybe it is his artistic nature that favors the change for after all is said and done Rog is quite an artist. If you don't believe us glance through the pages of this chronicle.

SEYMOUR LEROY HAMMOND, ΔΥ
"Ham"
North Chesterville, Me.

Farmington High School; Parker Prize Speaker (2); U. S. Navy.

"Ham" was one of the members of the glorious class of '19, the best class that ever graced the halls of Middlebury (so '19 says). But our friend Josephus needed an able assistant to represent him in the North Sea. So he sent for Ham, and Ham went. Josephus did everything he could to give Ham a permanent berth in the North Sea outfit, but two years of the Orkneys and North Scotland was enough for Ham, and he returned to these parts. So Ham is with us again. He never fails to praise (?) the life on the ocean wave, but we rather think he prefers good old Vermont terra-firma to Neptune's realms.

JOHN BOYER HARVEY, XΨ
Willimantic, Conn.

Windham High School; Transfer from Connecticut Agricultural College, 1919; Fourth Merrill Prize (2); Glee Club (2, 3).

Look it over! The Champeen Long-distance Walker of Vermont, from Willimantic, Conn. Some day John contemplates going after Weston's transcontinental record but now he is not yet old enough. John is one of our most silent specimens. The only time to hear him make a real noise is at Glee Club practice. But his natural reticence only adds to his prestige. Some people say a lot and we find that they know nothing. Others say little and we know they are wise men. Our prize pedestrian belongs to the latter class. 'Nuff sed!'

"Says little, thinks much."

EARLE EUDELL HASKINS, XΨ
"Hask"
Bradford, Vt.

Bradford Academy; Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2); Junior Play Committee (3).

If you want to find Earle don't go to his room. Rather seek out that source of all wisdom "The Libe." There you will find him encircled by immense piles of Greek and Political Science volumes. Earle is distinctive. He works in the library and does not use the building as a hotel lobby in which to meet his friends. He has made one great mistake in college. He took Poly Sci as a sixth subject, thinking it was a "cinch course."

"——By Crimus!"

JOHN BRENNAN HORNER, KΔP
"Jack"
West Pawlet, Vt.

Granville High School; Troy Conference Academy; Class Treasurer (2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Class Football (2); Assistant Advertising Manager, KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Sages.

If "Peck's Bad Boy" had ever gone to college we know what he would have been like. Jack's one aim in life is to try everything once. He usually does with results perilous to himself and uncomfortable to others. He can think up more foolishness—we call it that—than he can repeat in Spanish. Oh yes, he goes to classes after the first two weeks are over and his cuts are all used up. But, doubtless he means well and when he is only comparatively peaceful everyone likes him.

CHARLES EDWIN HOWARD
Middlebury, Vt.

Poughkeepsie High School; Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Merrill Prize Speaker; Auditing Committee (3); Sages.

This, Ladies and Gentlemen, is a specimen of the once famous Painter Hall Society of Rough Necks though we will admit he does not show the effects any more. He is now a very rational and industrious soul and one we would like to see more of. He lives off the campus but when one goes after him one realizes what a very good fellow he is. But don't ever go for a walk with him unless you are in the best of training! Charlie walks the way he does most every thing —HARD. And this reminds us that C. Edwin is still punishing the curriculum with considerable vehemence.

HARRY JOSEPH HULIHAN, ΔKE
"Ike"
Center Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Class President (2); Varsity Baseball (1, 2, 3); Varsity Basketball (1, 2); Class Football (2).

Can you imagine a better combination than Ike and Hulihan? But it really works pretty well in this case. With Ike baseball is more than a pastime,—it is a science, more to be desired than Chemistry, yea than much Math. Ike has been the recipient of many flattering offers from the big leagues but he still has many good games for Middlebury packed away in strong southpaw arm. Nobody can worry Ike, not even a Prof. He is at home before an "angry mob" on the side lines, in any class room, and at any Women's Dormitory. They all know him, his smile and his gentle voice. It was music to hear him preside at class meetings Sophomore year.

GEORGE RAYMOND JENKINS, ΑΣΦ

"Jenk"

Morrisville, Vt.

North Troy High School; Class Football (1, 2); Football Squad (2, 3).

The "Deacon" very carefully hides his light under a bushel and it has been within the power of only a favored few to overturn the bushel and behold the wonderful brilliance on the interior. Perhaps his past talks louder than his present; "Jenkie's" wide experience in the A. E. F., Y. M. C. A., and his missionary service in the Great North-west, all set him into the channel of the ministry. But the dark spots in our hero's life worry us not a little. He would make a first class minister and also some good woman a husband—but alas—poor "Jenkie," he has tasted the three evils of man, cards, dancing, and women. And unless he subdue these wild passions of his, he might as well abandon his original quest and proceed to satisfy his recently acquired desires—perhaps by a journey to Monte Carlo.

"They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish—so am I.
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban?
Let me live in my house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man."

BYRON FRANCIS KELLY, ΧΨ

"Kell"

Woodstock, Vt.

Woodstock High School; Class Football (2); Varsity Football Squad (2); Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Class Basketball (3); Glee Club (3); Student Council (3); Chairman Junior Week (3); Sages.

The old saying is that "a barking dog never bites"—but how about one that never barks? It may be safer to stay on the other side of the fence in that case. Byron doesn't have much to say but like Daniel W. his every word weighs a pound. As a basketball player on Morey's All-Stars, Byron is the best fullback we have ever seen. Byron is King of Junior Week and the responsibilities of this task have rested heavily upon this "wiley" young man's capable shoulders. The only thing we have against him is his misplaced eyebrow. (See cut).

MERTON DONALD LAFOUNTAIN, ΚΔΡ
"Mert"
Newport, Vermont

Newport High School; College Band (1, 2); College Orchestra (2); Junior Play Committee (3).

This promising Ladd is a drummer by profession—not a travelling drummer but a real vital member of the band and dance orchestra. Some day he hopes to organize a fife and drum corps in which he will have the opportunity to demonstrate to better advantage his peculiar ability. We can imagine that Mert had a rather hard time during the months and years of preparation for this volume, because to him, if anyone, the jokes were probably passed for first inspection and final judgment. Thus even the French House has its drawbacks.

"The endearing elegance of female friendship."

HENRY ELLIOTT LANE, ΔΚΕ
"Lanie"
Ottawa, Ontario

Ottawa Collegiate Institute; Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Captain (3); Manager (3); Varsity Squad (3); Class Football (2); Tennis Team; Chairman Junior Prom (3).

This is another specimen of what Ottawa can do for a man, but get him cornered and he will always admit that he was born in the States anyway. Elliott has a reputation of being "a nice quiet boy" but we know better. There is a reason for his quietness. It is a disguise and when he gets excited he has the cutest little stutter that drives them all wild. Kid him about it and he'll double up his fist and say real roughly, "D-d-do y-you w-want I should hit you?" As a player-manager-captain all in one Lanie is Tris Speaker's only rival but he substitutes class basketball for baseball. Elliott undeniably has a way with the Scotch, both on the Faculty and on the Other Hill.

HERBERT CARL LEACH, ΔΥ

"Mike"

Pawlet, Vermont

Mount Hermon School, Mt. Hermon, Mass. Class Football (2); Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Sages.

Mike must have a copy of The Complete Letter-Writer, else how could he keep up a correspondence that requires two or three epistles a day to the same two or three addresses? There must be a secret to his success somewhere. Perhaps it is because he does not waste his time in local folly, and can make up for it in summer campaigns to the Shrine of Aphrodite. But all in all Mike is a good fellow and a star of first magnitude in fraternity baseball. In common with other pitchers in this league he makes work easy for the catcher by hitting the bat with remarkable accuracy. Mike's brilliant collegiate career is only excelled by the brilliancy of his hair.

"Talks little, so how can we tell what he thinks."

GEORGE TRUMAN LEWIS, ΚΔΡ

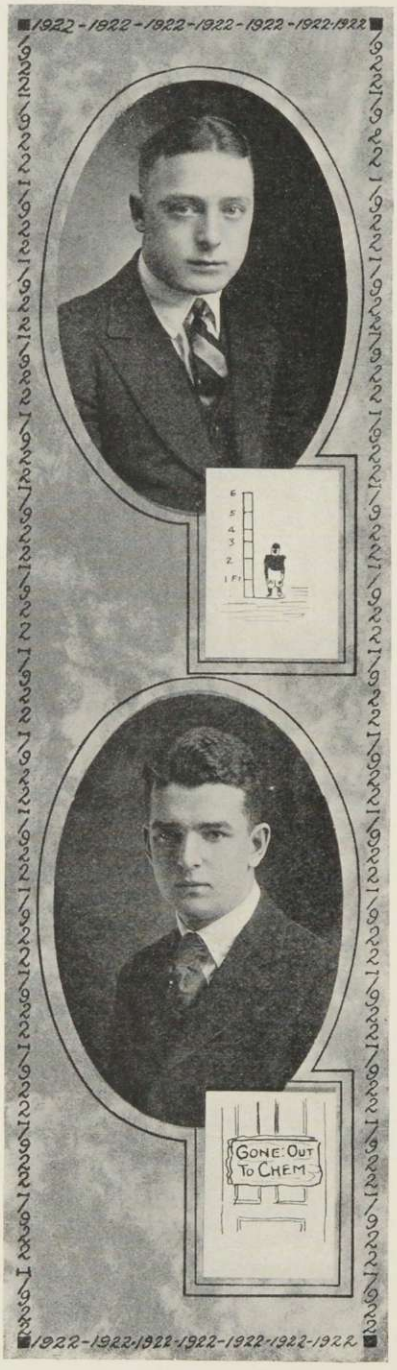
"George"

Crown Point, New York

Crown Point High School; College Band (1, 2, 3); College Orchestra (3); Treasurer S. N. C. (3); Class Track (2); Varsity Track Squad (2); Student Volunteer (2, 3); Campus Board (3); Junior Week Invitation Committee (3); Class Track (2); Varsity Track Squad (2).

George rather reminds us of a musical sphinx. He is almost never known to make a real noise except by means of a French Horn which he manipulates rather frequently to the pleasure—or displeasure—of his friends, and sometimes with actual risk to his own bodily comfort. George is inclined to religion and has high ideals. We hope that he will cherish them but we rather suspect that he is a great man in the Village of Middlebury. Rumor has it that he was instrumental in securing the passage of the Curfew Law and it is certain that he must have had a hand in organizing the Village Band.

"We grant that tho' he had much wit,
He was very shy of using it."



ALLAN BURTON MACDONNELL, XΨ

"Mac"

Ayer, Mass.

Ayer High School; Varsity Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Class Football (1, 2), Captain (2); Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2); Class Track (1, 2).

Mac has about all the life and pep that the good old Scotch is reputed to have had. And added to that there is his unfailing good humor. By reason of his struggles on the football team he has learned to take life philosophically and optimistically. His is indeed a handicap, for on the field he looks like a little boy among men—but only before the game starts. Once going Mac makes them all take notice and "for a little fella he is awful rough." Shortly after mid-years Mac left us, intending to study the treatment of "human pearls." Our only regret is that we had no course in dentistry to keep him here.

"——A wee bit of Scotch, ol' top."

JAMES ALBERT MOONEY

"Al"

Wallingford, Vermont

Wallingford High School.

This young man hails from the woolly wilds of Wallingford. But that is not all that we have against him for more than that, he is following in the footsteps of his Phi Beta Kappa room-mate, and is a species of the "Chem Shark"—one who makes those of feebler intellect work night and day to keep up with him. In his spare time you may find him dipping deep within the pages of the latest "Chemical Journal" in search of a nice $5000 job where "hard work is appreciated." Aside from his natural aptitude we have nothing against him for he is withal a quiet unassuming chap and one who does not radiate his knowledge.

HOWARD PIERCE NELSON, ΔKE

"Howdy," "Nellie"

Salisbury, Vermont

Middlebury High School.

Howdy, despite the name, is a bear for sleep. Some say he holds the college record for missed breakfasts. But about Chapel time when he is up and around, he begins to get going and keeps moving until the wee small hours of the night. Howdy entered with the class of '20 but decided that by going to war he could do two things, to wit—help his country and graduate with the illustrious class of '22. So Howdy went over to France and acquired a vast store of yarns about "winning the war" and returned to Middlebury with strictly cosmopolitan ideas.

"The sex is always to a soldier kind."

RIDLEY JESSE NORTON, ΔY

"Rid"

Bristol, Vt.

Bristol High School; Class Basketball (2, 3); Class Football (2); Class Track (2); Football Squad (2, 3); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Interfraternity Council (3); Delta Tau.

This prosperous looking individual hails from The Home of the Casket, to wit, Bristol, Vt., which he emphatically maintains is located on both sides of the road. He is not a detective and the verdant luxuriance upon his boyish lip is neither camouflage nor disguise, though it is probably placed there to give an exaggerated idea of age. Rid works hard at almost every sport—indoor and outdoor—practised at this venerable institution and rather scintillates in the most approved fashion in class contests. The mustachio is an awful handicap but despite it he does well.

BARNEY F. POTRATZ, ΑΣΦ
"Barney"
Milwaukee, Wis.

South Division High School; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Varsity Track (1, 2, 3); College Choir (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2); Class Cheerleader (1, 2); Delta Tau.

Barney is our prize yodler from the wild and woolly city that suffered more than any other place from the 18th amendment. We mean Milwaukee. Barney and his side partner Al Gollnick came east some twenty-four hours nearer the front and joined the S. A. T. C. in 1918. They liked it so well they returned and brought with them another product of the Beer City. Barney started out well in track and football and lately he has added another accomplishment which seems to require even more time from his curriculum activities.

JOHN HERMON PRESCOTT, ΑΣΦ
"Jack," "Pres"
Glenbrook, Conn.

Cheshire Academy; Cheltenham High School, Elkins Park, Pa.; Glee Club (2, 3); Mandolin Club (3); Orchestra (3); Choir (3); Alchemists (3); Le Cercle Francais (3).

John is a quiet chap and the uninitiated might think him bashful,—but this conception is entirely erroneous. That is one thing which he is not. True he may be sleepy during the daytime but then, you can't blame him for one has to sleep some time. Since he burst upon these Halls of Learning he has become a musician of no mean repute—banjo player de-luxe. We can't imagine Jack serving at anything so prosaic as ticket chopping at Willow Grove Park but he swears that it is true and tells wild tales of many summers spent there, serving as a "trusted" employee.

"Still waters run deep."

HUGO JOHN RATTI, ΚΔΡ
Proctor, Vermont

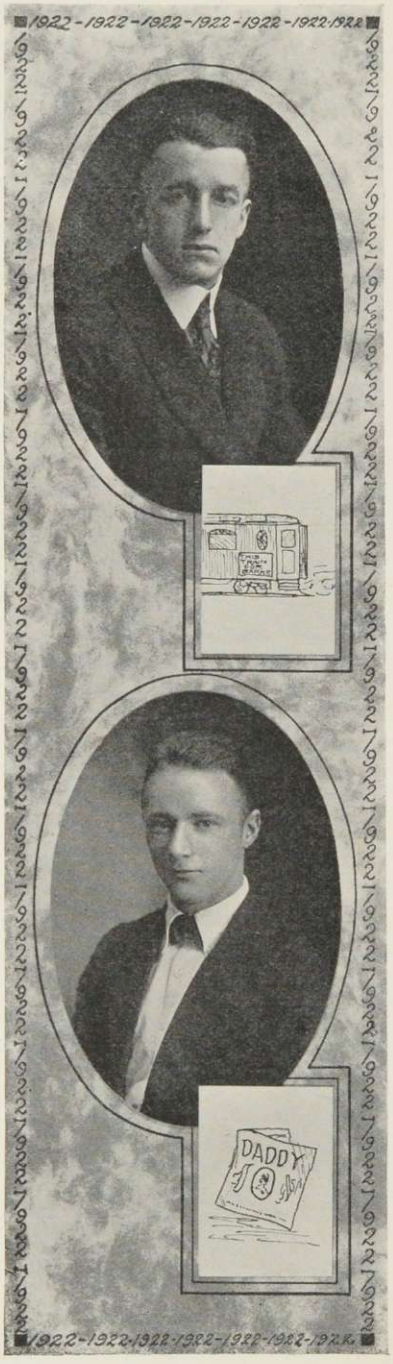
Proctor High School; Class Football (2); Football Squad (3); Business Manager Campus (3); Advertising Manager KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Chairman Junior Week Invitation Committee (3).

Hugo has spent most of his college education arguing. But not with professors. When Hugo argues he argues with tradespeople, merchants, etc., and completes his discourses by pointing to the dotted line in an advertising contract and commanding sternly, "Sign here." For you see Hugo is our advertising manager and he trained for the position by serving on the Business staff of the Campus. This young man is not the romantic youth his picture suggests. On the contrary he is very prosaic and practical. Who else could give weekly notice that "The Campus will be ready for folding at 4 o'clock" consecutively a whole college year without once changing the wording.

CHARLES HENRY REINBRECHT, ΑΣΦ
"Reiny," "Charlie"
Ridgewood, N. J.

Ridgewood Prep School; Sunday Noon Club (1, 2, 3), Secretary and Treasurer (2), President (3); Student Council (2); Student Volunteer (2, 3); Varsity Football (2, 3); Varsity Basketball (2), Second Team (1); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Varsity Baseball Squad (2); Apollo Club (3); Third Merrill Prize (2); Delegate to Student Volunteer Convention at Des Moines (2); Delta Tau.

Once upon a time there was a Gob and his name was Charlie; but Charlie tired of the monotony of chasing U-boats in the Mediterranean, ate his last bean breakfast in Hoboken, and entered the pursuit of knowledge in the foothills of the Green Mountains. If you don't believe he has been successful just watch him juggle Greek syntax in a way to excite jealousy in Socrates himself! But this isn't all, for Charlie is a boy of sturdy parts and has been a faithful worker for Middlebury on the football field. One word of advice to anyone who plays against him: when he gets his growth, BEWARE!



EUGENE LOCKE ROBINSON, XΨ

"Robbie"

Windsor, Vermont

Windsor High School; Varsity Track Team (1, 2), Captain (3); Varsity Football (1); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); College Record, Low Hurdles.

Robby is an imitative wonder. "Our loving son" is Nora Bayes' only rival. But Robby confines his talent to recording the "voices of his animal friends." When he gets going he sounds like a whole barn-yard. They say he contemplates entering the nursery business. We encourage such ambitions because he has a good "start." Robby is our track captain and holds the college record in the hurdles. Also he has been able to show the way to our friends from the North. Let the good work go on, Robby, another year is coming.

PAUL MYLREA ROSS, XΨ

"Dad"

Poultney, Vermont

Troy Conference Academy; Class Football (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain-Manager (2); Apollo Club; Business Manager KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Sages.

Hear ye! Hear ye! And heed our warning, friends! Don't ever get into an argument with this young Socrates. He listens attentively while you propound deep arguments, he nods assent as you make striking deductions, and then as you conclude your brilliant dissertation, he will remark gravely, "Well now I don't see that at all." And there you are. You might as well try to move a stone wall. Like a solid rubber ball, Daddy just won't give in. He is one of the famous Ross dynasty and we want more like him.

"Daddy, dear old daddy, you've been more than a daddy to me."

JOHN CHARLES SAUR, XΨ
"Jack"
Bridgeport, Conn.

Bridgeport High School; Class Treasurer (1); Assistant Manager of Baseball (3); Delta Tau.

Primarily mistaken first for a salesman of Gents' Furnishings and later for a sophomore when he burst upon this college campus, Long John disclosed his identity in time to sweep all opposition before him in his quest for the office of "Chancellor of the Exchecquer of the Class of 1922." Being of a conscientious nature and acting upon the belief that the "women had swung the vote," Jack took it upon himself to square accounts on the the Other Hill and this self-imposed task has occupied a substantial share of his time ever since. However he still found time to practice the manly art of landscape gardening on Porter Field which led to election as Baseball Manager. It is rumored that Jack purposes to schedule all out of town games in the environs of Troy.

HADLEY GEORGE SPEAR, AΣΦ
"Had"
Woodstock, Vermont

Woodstock High School.

Introducing Hadley G. (without telling what the G. stands for) as the only one in captivity but entirely harmless and docile. We had hopes of him once but he cultivated the acquaintance of a sharper light, "Caroline" S. White, and learned the wild and woolly game of solitaire which he plays with all the vigor of youth. He is a great exponent of aesthetic expression having posed for the benefit of the public on divers occasions on the balcony of room 44. It has been mysteriously whispered that on one occasion at least he invaded that section of the campus on the hill known as "No Man's Land" but we leave the proof of this to more judicial minds. After all, however, he posseses the germ of progress and may live long enough to outwit the Math. department.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

PIERRE STEPHAN
"Louis XIV" "Steve"
Strasbourg, France

Lycee of Colmar; Gymnase of Mulhouse; Lycee of Strasbourg; Ecole du Chateau de Soisy sous Etoilles; Universite de Paris.

Behold our Frenchman representation to the League of Nations, right hand man to Louis XIV and product of gay Paree, our own Pierre, who is fast becoming a true Vermonter. Steve bids fair to hold the record for original pronunciations, but if we could all speak French as well as he can twist English, we would major in the subject. Pierre is distinguished by wonderful credulity and blind, implicit trust. He still thinks we can talk Chinese.

"Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

EDMUND FARRINGTON STOCKWELL, XΨ
"Ed"
Montpelier, Vt.

Bellows Falls High School, Bellows Falls, Vt.; Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Varsity Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Choir (1, 3); Apollo Club (3).

Ed comes from the capital of our own Green Mountain State and he takes astronomy too, but he seems to be an ordinary individual despite this. He is a good baseball and football player until he runs into his annual hard luck. Stocky is quite a tenor, too, and a very accomplished chorister. His stage presence is wonderful. Who else can sleep so soundly with the eyes of all the college riveted upon him.

JOSEPH WETZEL TIMBERMAN, ΔΥ

"Tim"

Jamesburg, N. J.

Jamesburg High; Rider Business College; Varsity Baseball (1, 2), Captain-elect (3); Varsity Basketball (1, 3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Football Squad (1); Wetherell Debating Club (3); Vice President (3); Delta Tau.

Joe has his off days, but when he is going strong he goes with a whizz. Baseball and basketball are his strong points with oratory following close behind. He has visions of becoming a second Demosthenes but we advise him to stick to the sports. When Joe is not engaged in any of the occupations suggested above, call up Maison Francaise and you will find him there, but he will not be studying French. O, my, no.

"His zeal
None seconded, as out of season judg'd,
Or singular and rash."

LEIGHTON TILTON WADE, XΨ

"Babe"

Rutland, Vermont

Rutland High School; Associate Editor Campus (1, 2), Editor (3); Charter Member Press Club (2); Glee Club (2, 3).

This, the pride of Ruthland, is our w. k. and efficient editor of The Best College Weekly. Babe's two most favored expressions are "My gracious, this is awful!" and "Got any copy?" The former is used in moments of great feeling but the latter slips out naturally for Babe is a ruthless seeker after news. He fills The Campus with it and then viewing the world from aloof he sends out the wisdom of his deductions in rousing editorials. A very "worldly-wise" man he is, with an uncommonly level head and the ability to use it.

"Yea Babe! Yea Ruth! Yea! Yea! Babe Ruth!"

ROBERT HOLZER WHITNEY, ΑΣΦ

"Bob," "Whit"

Bridgeport, Conn.

Bridgeport High School; Secretary, Undergraduate Association (2); Press Club (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Assistant Manager of Track (3); College Band (3); Editor-in-Chief KALEIDOSCOPE (3).

Before us we have carelessly exposed to the elements the portrait of R. H. Whitney. Not wishing to cast any slander on the fair town of Bridgeport we must admit he lives there occasionally. One of Bob's chief claims to distinction is that he is P. Whitney's brother, but probably he is more notorious as a feed foundry financier. He has an attractive personality inasmuch as he succeeds in collecting $7.50 per week from the enthusiastic partakers of the daily bread at Hepburn Hall.

A great future is predicted for one so endowed with good looks (?) and the manner born. He has need of all these when his neighbors call to express their appreciation of his rending of the classics on the horn or mandolin.

"Profuse strains of unpremeditated art."

HUBERT WATSON WILLIAMS, ΧΨ

"Bill"

New Britain, Conn.

Worcester Academy; Merrill Prize Speaker; Class Football (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Social Committee (3); Spade; Delta Tau.

Bill made Delta Tau his freshman year and being young and inexperienced and having never studied Greek, he mistook this for Phi Beta Kappa and thought that his academic work was all over save the final presentation of the sheepskin. This interpretation gave Bill additional time to spend on worthier (?) subjects and he has made the most of his opportunities. He is very fickle, though you would hardly think him so romantic. He also plays the mandolin with more than ordinary skill, but seems rather bashful in displaying this talent.

"Earth holds no other like to thee."

JOHN HAROLD WRIGHT, ΔKE
"Runt"
Shoreham, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Assistant Cheerleader, (1, 2, 3).

When "Runt" left the excitement of Shoreham's social life and hopped an express on the Shoreham, Middlebury & Western, Cream Hill Division, for Middlebury his little body was obsessed with the idea to have a good time at any expense. The S. A. T. C. sorely taxed his patience. It was really pathetic to see John Harry always at the end of the line. And then there were those silly classes which have ever been the bore of this young man's life. Then he was hit by the Barb (ara) of Cupid's bow and it was all up with Runt. Classes became more than a bore, they became a positive nuisance. For a small man, Runt has a large voice. You should hear him when he is leading a Long Middlebury with three Swantons on the end.

"Whose little body lodged a mighty brain."

DURWARD SCOTT YATES, ΔKE
"Diz"
Glen Ridge, N. J.

Montclair Academy, Montclair, N. J.; Glee Club (1, 3).

In Durward we see velvet personified. We often wonder how so much smoothness could come all at once in one small package. The handsome photo attached hereto does not do him credit. To be absolutely life-like it would have to show the perpetual two-bit cigar which ever reposes in Dizzy's plutocratic lips. Also it would have to show an automobile—roadster model of the most popular design—which Dizz owned in connection with Peterson, late '22, an arrangement most satisfactory to Yates because he never had to clean the conveyance or change tires. And furthermore we might have to show a certain co-ed for Dizz specializes above all else in indoor sports.

Bellows Falls High School; Delegate to Maqua (3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3); Student Government Council (3); Delegate to Elmira (3); Press Club (3); Apollo Club (3); G. M. C. (2, 3).

Whence came such an appellation, "Rags"? For she is ever spinning. With her tongue she spins us yarns, with her wit she spins us wisdom, with her tact she spins us pleasure, with her hands she spins us comfort——until she has spun a web of friends about her—her spider spins us feeds.

MARION HILL CRATHERN, AX

"Carlo"

Old Bennington, Vermont

North High School, Worcester, Mass.; Bennington High School; Athletic Council (1, 2, 3); Manager Volley Ball (1); Hiking (2); Vice-President (3); Silver Bay Club (1, 2, 3); Secretary and Treasurer (1); Delegate to Silver Bay (1); Volley Ball Team (Varsity) (1, 2); Class Basketball Team (1, 2, 3); Varsity (1, 2); D. O. E.; Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Class Baseball Team (2); Varsity (2); Class Tennis Team (2); Green Mountain Club, Assistant Business Manager Campus (2, 3); S. N. C. (1, 2, 3); Student Volunteer (1, 2, 3); Delegate to Camp Maqua (2).

His Master's Voice first told us of the dead dog "Carlo"—thus it was that we named the master "Carlo" who really is a Master of genuine College life and has mastered universal admiration from men, women and children. She is the winner of an "M" sweater. She is a lady of an adjusto temperament, offering ready fun and service for all occasions. She is ever-sharp every day—of ready wit, rough house and play.

MARGARET CAROLINE DICKINSON
"Dicky," "Dick"
Amherst, Mass.

Amherst High School; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (1, 2, 3); Fresh Rep. (1), Secretary (2), Treasurer (3); Campus Board (2, 3); Assistant Editor-in-Chief, KALEIDOSCOPE (3); W. A. A. Council, Baseball Manager (2, 3); Class Basketball (2), Baseball (2), All Midd. Baseball (2); Head Waitress (3); Sunday Noon Club; Green Mountain Club.

A surprise package—a good thing in a small package—much good luck for '22 when it drew her. She is a blue bird of happiness, a busy bee for work, a Jack-of-all trades and talents, master too (note KALEID cartoons, also Board of Eds.)

DOROTHY DOUGLAS, AX
"Dordy"
Philadelphia, Penn.

Central High School, Scranton, Pa.; Student Government Council (1); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3).

"Hip, Hip 'l aboard" Dordy of '22,
In all our class there's no friend more true.
For her pep and her wit, why all must fall,
And her "heroes" lie ready at beck and call.
So faithful to Midd., so loyal is she
There never was friend like Dordy D.

BEATRICE FLORENCE DUMAS

"Bee," "Beum"

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Horace—3rd prize; Apollo Club.

"Bee" vs. Dan Cupid

She—Smiling, happy, hope unshaken,

"I'm a Roman Classicist,
To win a prize from hero Horace
And be myself the lady Venus."

He—Heartless for the hearts she's taken,

"You're a lady pacifist
To get a 'Way' from U. V. M.
N' vamp so many other men."

RENA CLAIRE DUMAS

Middlebury, Vt.

Middlebury High School; College Choir (1, 2, 3); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Women's Musical Association (2); Home Economics Club (3).

One of the types of the Pipes of Pan—a tiny, smiling, singing, playing, greeting, tuneful, instrumental Miss—a type not amiss for '22.

KATHRYN HELEN FINNEGAN
"Kate"
Worcester, Mass.

Worcester Classical High School; Class Volley Ball (2); Class Baseball (2); All-Midd. Baseball (2); Home Economics Club (2, 3).

As We See Her

Scenes—(1) "Katty" or "Black Beauty" on "Bat Cot" roof making feeds and fudge.
(2) "Katty" reading letters.
(3) "Katty" through the windshield.
(4) "Katty" smiling, singing, joking.

VELMA DON GATES, AX
Pasadena, Calif.

South Pasadena High School; Pomona College; Occidental College; Junior Prom Committee (3).

Out o' the West
A ready-made Miss
Unlike the rest
This venturesome Miss.
For Back on a ranch her young Lochinvar
Awaits her return from the distant far
This capable Miss.

MADELEINE IRENE GAYLOR, ΣΚ

"Mandy"

General Efficiency Agent.

Musical agent for dancers, singers, and romancers. (Victrola in herself—highest records.) Enthusiast agent and participant in athletics. (A) gent for entertainment.

AMY ELLA GOODELL

"Amy Ella"

West Dummerston, Vt.

Brattleboro High School; Women's Chorus (2); Home Economics Club (3); Class Baseball (2).

Law Case.

Plaintiff—Complaint. Defendant—Deep thought.

Subject—Could and should Amy be an LL.D.?

Facts—She is slow in word and action, deep in thought and books, in strong with the profs.

Decision—Amy will be O. K. in her chosen profession.

Reasons—She will argue on the most impossible side of the question. Already she is a lawyer's assistant.

EVELINE ROBERTS HOUGHTON

"Ev," "Evie"

Wallingford, Vt.

Wallingford High School; Home Economics Club; Apollo Club.

Adv.

A clever modiste—maker of friends as well as gowns.

A splendid cook—concocting fun as well as food. For references—apply to Home Ec. classes or to Hillcrest.

MARGARET BELL JENKINS

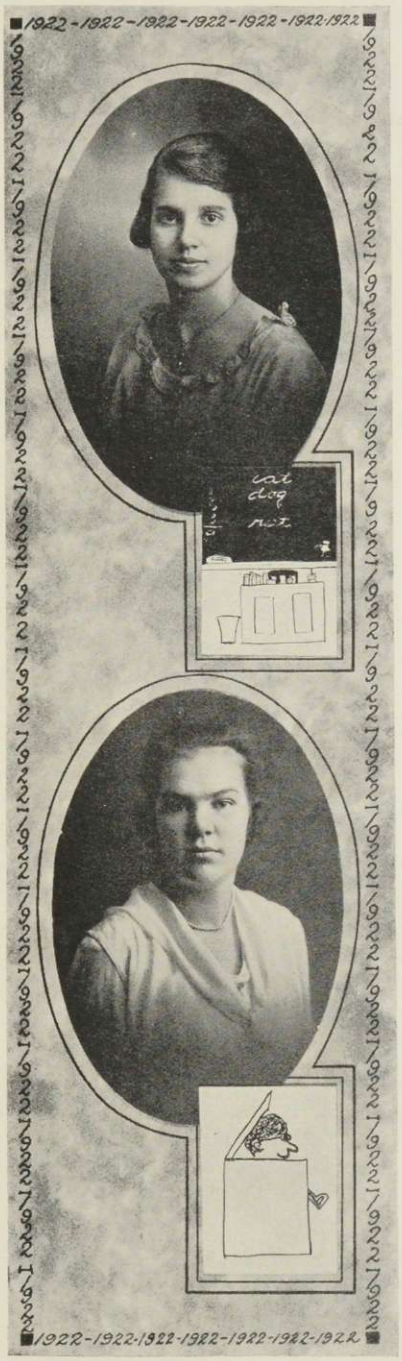
"Peg," "Jingle"

Waterbury, Conn.

Crosby High School, Waterbury, Conn. Women's Chorus (1); Home Economics Club, Treasurer and Secretary (3); A. W. W. Club (3).

A Safety Deposit Bank

Giving 100% interest on all your investments. Perfectly sincere and loyal in all her relations with you. Her accuracy and neatness assure her success; in partnership with her twin "Pete." A capital good will.



MILDRED EVELYN JENKINS, ΣΚ

Fair Haven, Vermont

Fair Haven High School; Second Pedagogy Prize (1); Treasurer Y. W. C. A. (2); Student Government Council (2, 3); House Chairman Homestead (3).

She is never too busy to serve
Her bill of fair;

A cup of kindness
A big heart
The Cream of friendship.

IDA LOUISE JENNINGS

"Squeeze"

Greens Farms, Conn.

Staples High School, Westport, Conn. Home Economics Club (2, 3); Executive Committee (2); Press Club (3); Women's Republican Club (3); Women's Athletic Association Treasurer (2); Class Volley Ball (2); Class Basketball (2); Class Baseball (2).

Squeeze

"Tubs" to the left of her,
"Putty" to the right of her,
"Rice" all around her,
"Clapp" (ed) and teased her.

Hers not to be downhearted,
Hers not to lose to '21.
Hers but to guard the closer,
Friendly old "Squeezer."

ADELE SABRA JONES, ΠΒΦ

Swanton High School; Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N. H.; Apollo Club (3); Home Economics Club (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); A. W. W. Club (3); Social Committee Y. W. C. A. (3); Women's Chorus (2).

Her Honors

Leader—Of cheer and happy "howdys"
Champion—Optimist and big fun enthusiast
Winner—Of the gold football from football Brown.

JANET KEACH
"Johnnie"
Salisbury, Vermont

Middlebury High School.

Birds of a feather—she flocks with Dumas, the Classicist, and Lorenzo, the Magnificent; fine feathers hers—blond ones.

We love Old Middlebury,
Three cheers for '22
But let's be more broad-minded,
And cheer for N. U. too.

HELEN MARGUERITE KILBRIDE
Waterbury, Conn.

Crosby High School; Apollo Club (3); Home Economics Club (2, 3).

As We Hear Her

She chatters, chatters as she goes,
That Spanish class-room to attend,
For Spring may come and Spring may go,
Her teaching has no end.
And "Katty," "Katty" she will say,
Or a happy "How are you today?"

ALICE MAY KIRKPATRICK
"Kirky"
North Leominster, Mass.

Leominster High School; Silver Bay 1919 (Silver Bay Club); Student Volunteer; Sunday Noon Club Council.

Extracts for Alice in Wonderland.

"A grin without a cat"—is "Kirky."
"Off with their heads"—those noisy girls.
"Twinkle, twinkle, 'roomy' Anne,
How I wonder that you can."
You can really have no notion how delightful it will be
When they take me as a doctor in the land across the sea.
"If you've problems to solve," quoth Alice, "draw near.
'Tis an honor to solve them, a favor to hear,"
And still she dwells in wonderland
And worries much that there should be
Such folks of light frivolity.

Versatile Anne.

Her Role.

To—run a tongue which exceeds the speed limit and get by doing it.
To—boss many a party,—to dance, sing, or turn a handspring.
To—be converted from a vamp to an angel at short notice.
To—get many A's, yet attend many committee meetings.
To—advocate "it's a large life, very perfluent" in Y. W.
To—have her fill (Phil) from Saturday to Monday.
To—be just about the most versatile creature among us.

Glee Club Concert

Thursday Evening, May 13, 1920

The Middlebury College Glee Club gave its annual concert Thursday evening in the "gym." The ensemble numbers were under the direction of Mr. Bissell and were performed very well indeed. "Al" Furber was as popular as ever with his songs and banjo while the Mandolin Club gave several enjoyable selections. Mr. Guy Coolidge and Mr. Hollis Cooley were especially good in their solo work, and Miss Prudence Fish sang with her usual skill and charm. Miss Hilda Woodruff and Mr. Harry Owen were accompanists. Prof. Davison gave two readings which were well worth hearing. In short the concert was a success and considering the fact that the men had been yelling their heads off at the game all afternoon we feel that they deserved the praise which they received.

Junior Prom

Class of 1921

Friday, May 14, 1920

The Junior Prom was held Friday evening in the McCullough Gymnasium. The "Gym" was decorated in the class colors and the softened lights with the benches covered with blankets and cushions, presented a very "comfy" appearance. The music was furnished by Zita's Orchestra of Albany and was positively irresistible. In short this Prom not only met the standards set by former ones but also set a new standard of efficient management and pleasure.

Junior Play

Class of 1921

The Junior Play was presented Saturday evening in the Gymnasium. The play chosen by the Committee was Augustin Daly's comedy in four acts, "A Night Off." Although an old play, "A Night Off" has always been very popular. There is plenty of action and opportunity for "character drawing." The coach, Mr. Harvey Kingsley, the committee, and the cast should be congratulated on the great success of the play. It was by far the best Junior play Middlebury has had for some time.

Class Day, June 19, 1920

One of the most successful Commencements that Middlebury has witnessed was opened by the Class Day Exercises held on the Campus at 9:00 A. M. The Seniors, led by the Junior Class Marshals, Isabel Bardwell and John Mead, marched from the library to the temporary stage through an aisle of daisy chains held by the girls of the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes. The guests were welcomed by the Class President, Stewart Ross.

The prizes in the various academic departments were awarded by President Thomas.

ATHLETICS

The Athletic Council

The Athletic Council consists of four members of the Faculty, six Upper-Classmen from the Undergraduate Association who are not members of the Student Council, and the Managers of all major sport teams, who are ex-officio members without vote. The Physical Director must be included among the representatives. The Officers consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and a resident Graduate Treasurer. The purpose of this Council is the advisory control of under-graduate athletic activities.

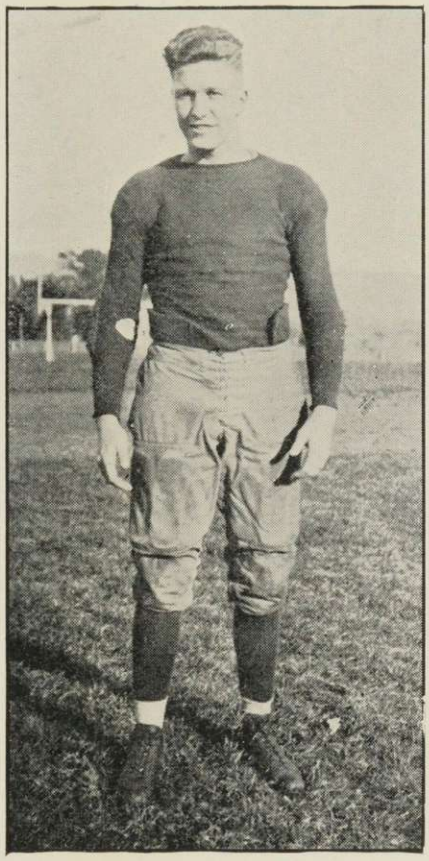
Football, Season 1920



Captain Mead

The Football team started its season in earnest shortly after Labor Day at the training camp at Lake Dunmore. Here a score and a half of men labored daily until the opening of College to prepare for the first game with Union on September 25. Coach A. M. Brown was in charge and he was assisted by Coach Morey, the new football coach made possible through the Hepburn fund for Athletics.

The squad returned to College on the opening day and started daily practice on the grid-iron. Here it was strengthened by twenty or so more candidates. A notable and very encouraging feature of the whole season was the spirit of the undergraduates in coming out for the team, for it assured the coaches of a large squad to work with throughout the entire season.

The season itself needs little comment. Its success was climaxed by a 6-0 victory over U. V. M. Union and Boston University were victims by 6-0 scores. The team more than successfully tied Springfield College and Stevens Tech. Defeat there may be viewed as victory as the former team outweighed the Midd. men nearly twenty pounds to the man while the latter team has not been defeated in four years. Each of these teams was confident of victory, but the old blue and white was some surprise.

The team suffered defeats from West Point, St. Lawrence University and Norwich University. Of course the biggest disappointment of the season was the defeat by Norwich, but one has only to look at the schedule to see that a mid-season slump was unavoidable.

One cannot help but comment on the remarkable work of Quackenbush at quarterback in the U. V. M. game, in making the two drop kicks that won the game.

The prospects for next season are better than ever with only three men of the varsity leaving through graduation and a wealth of new material that will be assured through the efforts of Coach Morey who will have charge next year.

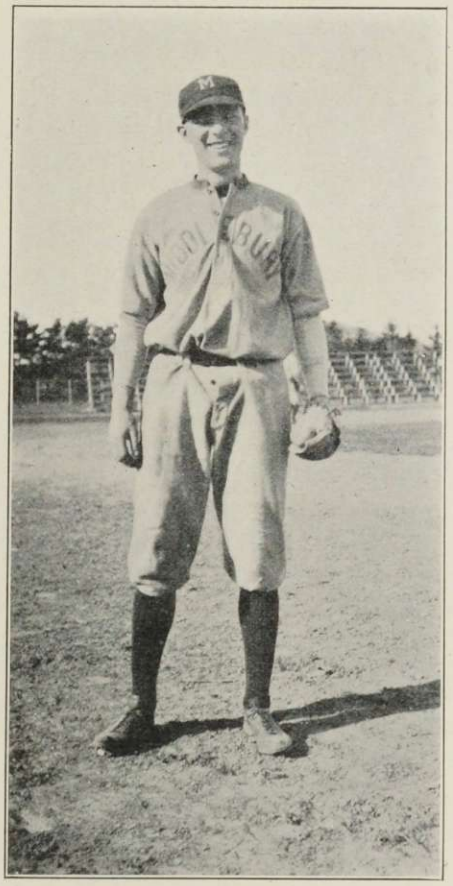
Baseball

Before completing the 1920 Baseball schedule Manager Law corresponded with over 125 Colleges and Athletic Clubs. Three new teams were added to the schedule last year, namely Rutgers, Seton Hall, and Camp Dix.

Weather conditions during the season reduced the fifteen game schedule to nine, five of them being played on Porter Field. "Cap." Crowell, formerly with Providence, Baltimore and Philadelphia League Teams, was secured as coach and did exceptional work in rounding the team into shape. For this coming season "Dave" Morey, a Dartmouth star of a few years ago, will have charge of the team.

Manager Law



Captain Ross

Manager Brigham has partially arranged the schedule for 1921 which includes the following games: Northeastern, (2); Springfield, Vermont, (2); Norwich, Boston College, Worcester, R. P. I. An Alumni game will probably be a feature of Commencement, and a Pennsylvania trip will be arranged for the first part of the season. Weather conditions indicate that an early start can be made and a successful season is anticipated.

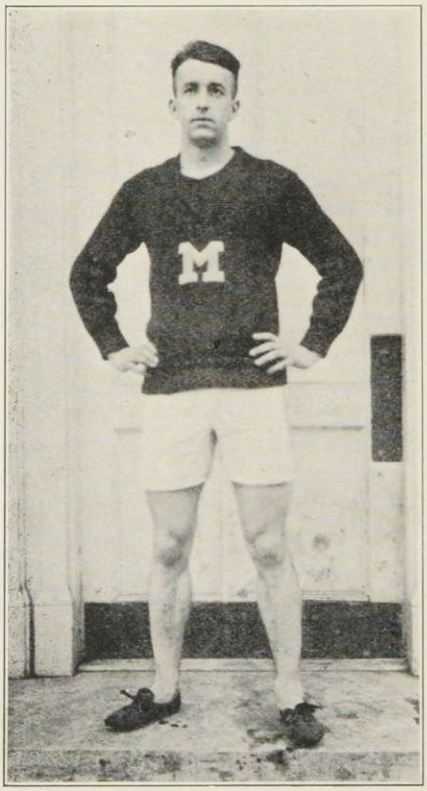
Review of the 1920 Track Season

MANAGER LEE

The Blue and White Track team of 1920 did not fail to uphold the prestige in Track athletics which Middlebury has so firmly established in New England in the past decade. Coach Brown was the mentor of the team, and he placed himself more firmly than ever in the hearts of Middlebury track enthusiasts.

The season was ushered in on May the first with a victory over St. Lawrence by a score of 69 2-3 to 56 1-3. The next Saturday, May the eighth, Captain Darby, Robinson, and Potratz were sent to the Easter Intercollegiates at Springfield, Mass., where Robinson placed second in the 220 hurdles, and Potratz third in the hammer throw. The next meet was with our old rival, Vermont, which took place on May the fourteenth, during Junior Week, and the Blue and White completely triumphed over the wearers of the Green and Gold to the tune of 75½ to 50½. On May twenty-second Middlebury sent three men to the New England Intercollegiates at Boston, where Robinson placed fourth in the 220 hurdles. On May Twenty-ninth the final meet of the year took place at Troy against R. P. I., and the only defeat of the season was suffered when R. P. I. came out on the long end of a 64 to 62 score. Middlebury was greatly handicapped in this meet, Captain Darby being injured early in the meet and unable to compete.



CAPTAIN ROBINSON

During the season Tatro broke the high jump record, increasing it to 5 ft. 6½ inches, Robinson lowered the 220 hurdle record to 27 flat, while Darby hung up a record of 52 flat for the 440 yard dash at the New England Intercollegiates but failed to place in the event.

The 1920-21 Basketball season marks the time when Middlebury began to receive recognition from the leading colleges in basketball. The calibre of the team will be evident by observing the teams played and the closeness of the scores, and we can truthfully consider the season a successful one.

Since there were only two of last year's team back, a new machine had to be built up, this taking a good part of the season. The team was reorganized after the "Fatal exams" and made a good showing against Norwich and Vermont.

Captain Heath at guard, and later at forward, and Davis at center and guard, played good, hard games throughout the season. Leonard and Lacy did good guarding, the former making a good many baskets from mid-floor. Hardy and Timberman, at forward and center showed marked improvement at the end of the season. Other members who played during the season were Sikorski, Kalin and Corttis at guard, Axtell at forward, and Wilson at center. Captain Heath and Davis are the only Seniors so that a nucleus for a good team next year remains.

Coach Brown deserves to be complimented for the way in which he coached and ran the team during the season. He gave unstintingly of his time, and much of the team's success was due to him.

The Outing Club

The Outing Club was organized in the fall of 1916 with the more general development of winter sports among the men as its purpose. The location of the college favors the realization of this aim, and the many hills and the near-lying ranges of the Green Mountains offer ideal conditions for healthful exercise on skii and snowshoes.

An important feature of the club's activities is the sending of teams to the Dartmouth and McGill carnivals, held in February of each year. Middlebury placed fourth in the meet this year at Dartmouth, February 10-12, among representatives from Dartmouth, McGill, Williams and Vermont, and tied with Williams and Vermont for third place at the McGill meet, held two weeks later.

During the carnival at McGill, an organization known as the "Eastern Intercollegiate Ski Association" was formed and officers elected. The Middlebury Outing Club is a charter member of the organization, whose purpose is the promotion of interest in intercollegiate ski running and the adoption of uniform rules for the conduct of meets. Two meets will be held each year, total score to decide the championship. The meets next year will be at Dartmouth and at McGill.

Women's Athletic Association

Interest in Women's Athletics has greatly increased during the past year, the class contests in basketball and volley ball being especially popular. When the new baseball diamond and track for the women are completed the rapid advancement of these sports is assured. The enthusiasm and co-operation shown is rapidly putting the Association in a higher place in college life.

Sophomore Class History

Class Officers

Barbara Stilphen	Vice-President

Cyril Edward Shelvey	Treasurer

Back in the fall of 1919 there entered a class which no doubt was like any other entering class in its verdancy and immaturity. But before many moons had passed, this class began to make just fame for itself. We were scarcely settled at Midd when the sportive Sophomores indulged in various forms of amusement at our expense, all of which we accepted with good grace, but retaliated by showing our superiority in the several class events. In every Freshman-Sophomore contest of our first year, with the one exception of the Rope-Pull the class of '23 emerged victorious. We conquered in the Hat Scrap after a hard-fought battle, and were equally successful in winning the deciding football game to the tune of 14 to 0. The next feather in our cap was the winning of the basketball championship of the college.

But even better days are now before us. No longer are we meek submissive Freshmen, but now enjoy the dignity of Sophomores, with the privilege of laying down the law to our youthful friends of the class of '24, and the duty of instilling in them the true Middlebury spirit. After losing the Hat Scrap in a terrific struggle, we came back strong in the class football game, outplaying the Frosh 6 to 0. Members of this class have gained prominence on all the varsity teams, as well as in other lines of endeavor and in the social world. It is our hope and ambition to leave a record which will serve as a goal to which succeeding classes may aspire.

Sophomore Hop

The annual Sophomore Hop was held in the McCullough Gymnasium Wednesday evening, November 24 at 8.00 o'clock. The Williams College Orchestra furnished the music for the twenty dances. The dance orders were white with maroon cords, and bore a gold "M." The same color scheme was carried out in the decorations and proved to be very effective.

The patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. J. M. Thomas, Professor and Mrs. E. C. Bryant, Professor and Mrs. V. C. Harrington, Miss E. S. Ross, and Mrs. Maude O. Mason.

Sunday Noon Club

The Sunday Noon Club is an evolution from a small class of students meeting at the Methodist Church several years since at the conclusion of each morning service. There has been increasing interest in the club, the roll now numbering one hundred and ten, representing eight denominations.

The topics are attempted interpretations of Bible truths, with frequent discussions of those live ethical questions always arising in college life, as well as in the big world beyond.

Camp Maqua Club

The Maqua Club has superseded the Silver Bay Club and was organized in the summer of 1920. Students sent as delegates from Middlebury College to the Y. W. C. A. Student Conference are eligible to membership in the club. The conference is held annually for ten days, at which time study lectures and classes are held by leaders in the Y. W. C. A. The purpose of the conference is to give inspiration and enthusiasm to the girls in college organizations for the coming year.

The Press Club

Working on the basis of the Press Club of the preceding year the Press Club of 1920-21 was formed early in the year with a roll of some twenty members from both Colleges. Professor Davison acted as director and the college authorities furnished and equipped an office. There were no officers but each member was assigned to some special field, such as sports, magazine write-ups, or local columns and worked with right good will to obtain publicity in that line. The Club enjoyed a very successful year and was able to secure space in the Vermonter and several of the big city papers as well as to run regular columns of college news in the larger state papers. The chief characteristic of the Club is modesty, but its motto is service to Middlebury and it is doing a worth-while work in an inconspicuous way.

Student Volunteers

Established 1886

Watchword—Evangelization of the world in this generation.

Declaration—It is my purpose, if God permit, to become a foreign missionary.

Preparations—Studying the world problems in preparation for foreign missionary service.

History—Volunteers have gone out to all parts of the non-Christian world. Over 40 of this number have gone out from Middlebury, beginning with Levi Parsons and Pliny Fisk, who sailed for Turkey in December 1819, and including Ruth G. Holland, who sailed for Uduvil, Chunnakam, Ceylon, in September 1919. Word has been received of her death, in February 1921, from typhoid fever.

The Wetherell Debating Club

The Wetherell Debating Club was organized March 20, 1919, for the purpose of stimulating interest in debating and speaking at Middlebury College. Under the auspices of the Club, discussions and trial debates were held during the college year. Through competition of Club members, teams were picked to represent Middlebury in Intercollegiate debates. The Club is composed of undergraduates and members of the faculty, who act as coaches, membership being open to all.

Debating 1920

Intercolegiate Debate, April 27th

St. Lawrence University versus Middlebury College.

RESOLVED—That in all the principal industries of the United States, boards, equitably representing employers and employed, be established to settle all questions arising between them.

In the debate at Middlebury the affirmative was upheld by

MURRAY ADAMS, '23, Captain — WALBRIDGE FULLINGTON, '20
RALPH SINCERBOX, '20 — HENRY H. EDDY, '23, Alternate

The judges were Gov. Percival W. Clement, Commissioner Milo B. Hillegas, and Hon. Marvelle C. Webber.

At the same hour there was held at Canton, N. Y., another debate with St. Lawrence University on the same question, in which the negative was supported by a Middlebury team composed of

SAMUEL GINSBURG, '20 — JAMES H. NOBLE, '21
A. GEORGE OSTEYEE, '21

The judges at Middlebury rendered a decision in favor of the Middlebury team. The judges at St. Lawrence rendered a decision in favor of the St. Lawrence team.

1921

Triangular Debate, March 16th

U. V. M. vs. Middlebury at Middlebury.
St. Lawrence vs. Middlebury at Canton.
St. Lawrence vs. U. V. M. at Burlington.

RESOLVED—That European immigration into the United States should be further restricted by Federal action.

The affirmative was upheld at Middlebury by

EDGAR T. AUSTIN, '24 — MURRAY ADAMS, '23, (Captain)
DONALD W. RILEY, '24 — RONALD J. DARBY, '21, (Alternate)

The negative was upheld at Canton by

HENRY H. EDDY, '23, (Captain) — D. HAYDN PARRY, '24
LESTER E. KLIMM, '24 — LEON W. MCFEE, '21, (Alternate)

The judges decided in favor of Middlebury at Middlebury, and Middlebury at Canton. The Wetherell Prizes were won by Murray Adams, '23, and D. Haydn Parry, '24.

Middlebury College Band

The college band was organized in 1909 through the efforts of former Dean Walter E. Howard and Edgar J. Wiley, '13. The college has engaged a competent leader under whose direction the band meets every week for practice. Opportunity is given for any man with musical talent to become a member of the band through previous qualifications or through training furnished free by the college. The band has become an important part of the college life, leading the procession at varsity contests and occasionally taking part at entertainments and patriotic gatherings in the town.

Freshman Class History

Class Officers

James Allan Hunter	President
Wilma Louise Walsh	Vice-President
Maynard Joseph Axtell	Treasurer
Florence Noble	Secretary

I was seated in the chapel and the spirit came upon me and behold I saw an angel clad in a wondrous light and on his head was a P. Green and in his left hand were seven matches and his right hand was raised to his head in salute and he spoke to me in a voice like thunder saying:—

"I know thy tribulation and the blasphemy of them that say that ye are not men, but be patient in tribulation and I will clothe thee with the blue and white of the sons and daughters of Middlebury College and make you to live the life of sophomores which is the life indeed.

I know that ye of this class called '24 have served your college faithfully and in you I am well pleased. Your young men have gone onto the bloody gridiron and served faithfully without public reward but have faith that they also serve who only go out and act as scrimmage fodder.

When the Vermontite invaded your land and was repulsed by your eleven ye built a great altar such as has never been seen before and offered up joyful thanks to the gods of victory.

In the football war between the Freshmanites and the Sophomoreites although you lost, you fought the good fight, you kept the faith and some of you nearly finished the course.

But in the hat scrap ye were triumphant and ye payed back the Sophomoreites with an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

On the bloody arena of the basketball floor none can conquer you and to ye who will overcome will be given the crown of the championship.

Nevertheless that which ye have, hold fast till I come and he that overcometh and he that keepeth up the good work unto the end, to him will I give authority over the Freshmen of next year. He that hath an ear to hear let him hear."

And I woke up in time to hear that "THE CAMPUS will be ready for folding at four o'clock."

To Professor Frank W. Cady

English professor, faculty humorist, and censor of the KALEIDOSCOPE, we respectfully dedicate these following pages in the hope that he will spare impertinence for the sake of humor.

We will not go far from the old line,
For we really have nothing to say—
Only old jokes to remodel
In a new and original way.

And then for the Freshmen, we'll rhyme you
In a neat little couplet or two,
Something about babies and rattles
As the rest of the annuals do.

And how the Sophomores are wiser
This year than ever before,
They are jokes that are rather worn threadbare
If they'll only last one season more!

The Passing Show of 1922

In Hepburn Commons:—

"Say, waiter, this coffee tastes like mud."

"Well, it was ground this morning."

In the Chem Lab:—

Pinky—"What about wood alcohol?"

Kleinspehn—"Don't you know how to test for that?"

Pinky—"No. How?"

Kleinspehn—"Filter it through a handkerchief and see if you get any splinters."

Why is Tally so peeved at the photographer?"

"Because on the back of her Kaleid picture was pasted a notice: 'The original of this picture is carefully preserved!' "

Soph—"Have you heard that story about the girl who poured water into her straw hat?"

Frosh—"No. What is it?"

Soph—"It hasn't leaked out yet."

A professor discovers a Freshman wandering hopelessly around the corridors

Prof.—"Are you looking for something?"

Frosh—"Yes, the nine o'clock period."

In Logic:—

Prof. Harrington—"What is the universal negative?"

Sleepy Student—"I am not prepared."

After Christmas:—

She—"Did you have a good time on your vacation?"

He—"Fine, except for two things."

She—"What were they?"

He—"I had to stop sleeping to eat, and I had to stop eating to sleep!"

Fond Father—"Well, Jim, how do you think you will like college?"

Emory—"Oh, fine, Dad! All the fellows like me and I've got the biggest feet in the class!"

Prof.—"How many revolutions took place during this period?"
'23—"Four."
Prof.—"Name them."
'23—"One, two, three, four."

LaFountain—"Sir, I want permission to be away three days after the end of the vacation."
Dean Bonney—"Oh, you want three more days of grace?"
LaFountain—"No, three more days of Gladys!"

Cannibal Prince, rushing in—"Am I too late for dinner?"
Cannibal King—"Yes, everyone's eaten."

Freshman—"Have you eaten at Bat Cot ever since you came to Middlebury?"
Carlo (much insulted)—"Oh, no! Only at meal times."

Oh, the Roman was a rogue,
He erat was, in bettum,
He ran his automobilio
And smoked his cigarettum.

He wore a diamond studibus,
An elegant cravatum,
A maxima cum laude shirt,
And suit of laude checkum.

He loved his luscious hic, haec, hoc,
And bet on games and equi;
At times he won, at others though
He got it in the nequi.

He winked (quousque tandem?)
At puellas in the Forum,
And sometimes even made
Those goo-goo osculorum

Our Bulletin Board

Lost (we fear finally)—The lives of those kind friends who asked us last February if the KALEIDOSCOPE wasn't almost finished.

Wanted—A key to the jokes in the Periscope.

Lost—My rule-book of Parliamentary Law, as used in Freshman class meetings.—Allan Hunter.

Wanted—A place to entertain callers who can't speak French.—K. Mara.

Notice—Just opened! A Scenic Railway up Chipman. Trips every Sunday afternoon. Wonderful opportunity to see the scenery of Vermont! Guaranteed to get you back in time for chapel. Reserve your seats now for the rest of the year. Price, 3c per couple.—Fussers' Cooperative Association.

Wanted—An adding machine, for use in the college bookstore.—Bill Meacham.

They say that when it comes to brains
I'd underweigh a feather;
But one thing I have learned to do:
Put two and two together!

I tell you, as the prices soar
In such hard times as these,
The damsel's skirts just hesitate
An inch below the knees!

Oh, Jovial Bacchus, hear my prayer:
While girls economize
Just grant that times grow harder yet
And let the prices rise!

As Others See Us

"And since I've never dared to be
As funny as I can."

Bill Willey—I am not so green as I look.

Harvey Coates—Not all the pumice of the polished town can smooth the roughness of the barnyard clown.

Milton Barnes—But I confess I am fond of girls, I really am.

Carlo—She never worked but moments odd, yet many a bluff wrought she.

Jim Geddes—Ego, ich, and je are three dear friends of mine.

Roy Bigelow—Too proud for a beggar, too thin for the stage.

Barney Potratz—Cracked or half-cracked is this tall marquis' head; uncracked are his lungs.

Don Doc—My lord, if you will give me leave, I'll tread this unbolted villain into mortar.

Leslie Moyles—So good that he is good for nothing.

Peason's Social Hall—We'll draw the curtain.

Bus Swan—Fancy's child, warbling his native woodnotes wild.

Allen Bliss—The girls all call him sweet.

Frosh (first two weeks)—I had a glimpse of him but he shot by me like a young hound on a burning scent.

Muriel Long—As chaste as an icicle.

Edie Drost—Untamed, untried, from western wilds.

Angie Simpson—Never the time, the place, and the loved one all together.

Corsen—Truly a ladies' pet, I know it by his style.

Hazel Proctor—Condensed almost to abruptness.

Runt Wright—I come from the back woods, from way back.

Carlisle Coates—Well then, I now do plainly see this busy world and I shall ne'er agree.

Bucky Littlefield—Her capability brings her Art.

Bob Clark—A wee little one, a bonny little one.

Jim Hunter—Music is well said to be the speech of angels.

Mary Williams—The glass of fashion and the mold of form, the observed of all observers.

Mildred Stewart—I am not what I seem; not any dyer gave,
But nature dyed this color that I have.

The Sheepskin

"Roll your own."

"A skin you love to touch."

HEARD IN FRONT OF PEARSON'S ONE EVENING

He—"What would you do if I should kiss you on the forehead?"
She—"I'd call you down."

Prof. Cady—"This class reminds me of Hepburn Social Hall."
"How's that?"
Prof. Cady—"Full of dead heads."

There had been a discussion in class as to the characteristics of a donkey.
Prof. "But my dear Miss L.—could you love a donkey?"
Co-ed—"Oh, professor, this is so sudden."

French Professor—"I am very tired this morning. I've been trying to teach a young lady to use her lips."
Sam Davis—"That's just why I'm tired too, professor."

"Speaking of Friday," she said, "they're such annoying things!"
"What are " I asked.
"Fish," she replied slowly. "You know Mike Leach took me fishing once and I think he was on the point of proposing, the poor bashful dear, when one of the horrid things ran off with my hook and interrupted. He never acted that way again!"
"Who didn't?" I asked. She stared dreamily into space.
"The poor fish!" she murmured softly.

IN THE CAMPUS OFFICE

Babe—"Did you get the write-up of that food lecture?"

Reporter—"No, we don't need to. He is going to give us a digest of it afterwards."

Jack Horner—"You don't mind my singing, do you?"

Bob—"Not at all. I worked in a saw mill all last summer."

"Why did you leave him to come and get some cold cream?"

"I had to do something to get the chap off my hands."

"Waiter, this soup is cold."

"Shouldn't be. This is the third time today that soup has been warmed up."

He—"My clutch is awfully weak."

She—"Yes, so I'd noticed.

Norton had a wee moustache
He bathed in elixir.
Some naughty boys his bottle stole
With mucilage to fix her.
The elixir still he does apply,
He doesn't know the diff,
And yet he often wonders why
His moustache is so stiff.

The Frosh stood on the burning deck,
And from all that we can learn
He stood in perfect safety—
He was too green to burn.

The shades of night had glided down
Long since upon our college town.
On Pearson's steps, so the story ran,
Stood a Junior girl and a Senior man.
In a voice that was husky and low, said he,
"Won't you come for a moonlight stroll with me?"
Quoth the Junior maid in a mournful tone,
"But I can't go without a chaperone."
The Senior student raised his head.
"I'm sure you won't need one with me," he said
"Then," quoth the maid, so sweet and low,
"Then," quoth she, "I don't care to go."

Shep (the Younger)—So sweet and soluble is his discourse.

Billy Walsh—Happy am I; from care I am free!
Why aren't they all contented like me?

Bernice Clapp—It talked, Lord, how it talked!

Sam Davis—He struck me very much like a steam engine in trousers.

Brauty—Here is my throne; let men come and bow down to it.

Aristotle Wheeler—If childhood were not in the world,
But only men and women grown.

Al Gollnick—God sifted three kingdoms to find the seed for this planting.

Ilbert Lacy—He hath a face like a benediction.

Jack Saur—Out upon it. I have loved
Three whole days together!
And I shall maybe love three more
If it shall prove fair weather!

Anne Littlefield—Fie! what a spendthrift she is of her tongue.

Pierre Stephan—As innocent as a new-laid egg.

Bosco Aldrich—Built some like the Boston State House, broad in the beam, with a shiny dome on top.

Jack Horner—Gee, I'm tough! I eat rock candy and brick ice cream!

Student Council—To know of some is well,
Of others it were laudable to be silent.

Binks Benedict—A still, small voice.

Bill McMaster—Ye Gods! is yon merry youth a pedagogue?

Emory—There would have been more of him, if there hadn't been so much turned up for feet.

Peg Porter—She'e little but she's wise;
She's a terror for her size.

Ed Stockwell—All I ask is to be let alone.

Fitzpatrick—Anything for a quiet life!

Earle Haskins—I am but a stranger here, Heaven is my home.

Emily Cass—I am far from my home.

Murray Adams—All great men are dying; in fact I don't feel very well myself.

Bob Coates—The soul of this man is in his clothes.

Prof. Williams—They camp on my trail!

Jerry Wimmett—Kids will be kids.

Harry Hulihan—He was like a cock who thought the sun had risen to hear him crow.

Duke May—What do I care for expenses—I've got lots of them.

IMPROVEMENTS WE SOME DAY HOPE TO SEE IN MIDDLEBURY.

Cushions on the chapel seats.

An alarm clock in chapel to ring at the close of Sunday vespers.

An elevator in Pearsons.

Electric cars every five minutes for Rutland and Burlington.

An escalator up chapel walk.

A roof garden at Joe's.

Benches for two, provided outside of Pearson's.

A college clearing-house, for returning borrowed articles.

Wireless information, to make hymn-betting a sure thing.

Movies of the Freshmen, taken when they first register and shown during their Senior Commencement.

U. V. M. and Norwich annexed as preparatory schools for Middlebury.

CAN YOU IMAGINE—

Kirkie, teaching penmanship?

Sib, the first one to start for a class?

Bishop, a circus clown?

Sam Davis, posing for a still-life painting?

Brauty, sitting back and listening to someone else?

Rog Hall, without spats?

Sincy, with a girl,

or

Chick Baldwin, without one?

Perkins, president of a girls' boarding school?

Abe Way, tackle on the football team?

Prof. Abbott, giving an A?

Bugs, wearing a Phi Beta Kappa key?

Binks, in charge at the library?

Murray, agreeing with the prof.?

Carlisle, graduating in three years?

19 22

In spring youths' fancy lightly turns
To massive old Egyptian urns,
To red clay bricks whose hieroglyphics
Propound old medical specifics
For joining parts of broken hearts
Such is the youth who takes Fine Arts.

Appreciation

The editors of the 1922 KALEIDOSCOPE wish to express their sincere appreciation to all who have in any way assisted in making this volume what it is: to Prof Abbott for invaluable advice; Prof. Cady, for kindly co-operation; Mr. Otis G. Beale of The Tuttle Company for his personal interest in the book; The Gove Studio; to the Misses Wiley '21, Novak '21, Gaylor '22, Dickinson '22, and Messrs. Spencer '21, MacDonnell '22, Hayward '23, and Vose '24 for their drawings and art work; and lastly to the advertisers whose generous assistance has made possible the publication of this book.
